Museum Grand Opening

Casper, Wyoming – Fort Caspar Museum has recently completed a major expansion project and is hosting an Open House on January 12, 2007. The event celebrates new exhibit galleries and the educational Multi-Use Room and Classroom. New exhibits include topics such as Prehistoric Central Wyoming, Natrona County Community Development and 100 Years of Casper History, the Oil and Gas Industry, Central Wyoming Agriculture, Fort History, and Historic Trail Features associated with the site.

Co-sponsored by the Fort Caspar Museum Association, other activities at the Open House will include the Beeson Family playing old time fiddle music. Anastasia Beeson is the current State Junior Fiddle Champion. Also playing is a kid's music group, "All Together Now – Just Fiddling Around." Refreshments will be provided by the Fort Caspar Museum Association.

The Open House is scheduled to run 10:00 am to 3:00 pm and the museum will offer Free Admission during those hours.
